PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE CLEVELAND, OHIO 44106 TELEPHONE 421-7346

For release: August 10, 1975

ART MUSEUM THIS WEEK

Today, 1:30 p.m. AMERICAN LANDSCAPE PAINTING. Ronnie Zakon. GALLERY TALKS:

Wednesday, 1:30 p.m. JAPONISME: JAPANESE INFLUENCE ON FRENCH

ART 1854-1910. David Whipple.

Today, 1:30-4:30 p.m. ARTISTS OF THE HUDSON RIVER AUDIO-VISUAL PROGRAM:

SCHOOL. Janet L. Mack. Tuesday-Saturday, a variety of tapes are presented throughout the day.

Educational Exhibit Area: AMERICAN JAPONISM. American adapta-EXHIBITIONS:

tions of Japanese motifs in prints, paintings, and decorative art objects. Through August 31.

Lower Special Gallery: JAPONISME: JAPANESE INFLUENCE ON FRENCH ART 1854-1910. An exhibition which examines the impact of Japanese art on France from 1854 to 1910, as illustrated in prints, paintings, and decorative arts. Through August 31.

Upper Special Gallery: LANDSCAPES, INTERIOR AND EXTERIOR: AVERY, ROTHKO, AND SCHUELER. An exhibition of paintings and watercolors dating from the late 1950s to the present illustrating the interaction of visual perception and subjective experience in the work of three artists: Milton Avery, Mark Rothko, and Jon Schueler.

Through August 31.

Closed on Mondays.

M.7/29/75